Etude In E Major, Op. 10, No. 3 (Alfred Masterwork Edition)

Synopsis

"Never in my life have I been able to find again so beautiful a melody," is what Chopin said of this famous work, the performance of which achieves an important landmark in the development of the pianist's technique and artistry. A late intermediate or early advanced level performer will be challenged in every section, first with the dynamic presentation of the "singing" romantic melodies, requiring the proper use of rubato, accents, crescendos and diminuendos, and then also in the chromatic sequences and in the demanding "con bravura" section. This edition features a biographical sketch, performance suggestions, suggested fingering, and editorial additions in gray print.

Unfortunately, this edition has no flexibility of display resizing and it's too small to read on both Kindle 3G nor Kindle for PC. I tried sample at first, but it contained only book cover. How can I check music score only by book cover image?
