Liszt -- Sonata In B Minor (Alfred Masterwork Edition)

Synopsis

Romantic piano virtuoso and composer Franz Liszt's Sonata in B Minor is a monumental contribution to piano literature. This critical edition addresses sources, discrepancies, and performance issues (tempi, pedaling, fingering, style, interpretation, and technique). Also discussed are Liszt's life, career, and background on the historical, cultural, and social environment that influenced the composer.

Customer Reviews

I can't believe an error like this has been made in Alfred's edition. The chord's top notes are missing and the second top notes have assumed the length of top notes. These two measures sound completely absurd if played as written. I'm giving this two stars just because the rest seems fine mostly although I feel like I've noticed a few more errors. But really that chord misplacement completely threw me off.
