Customer Reviews

These Schirmer books aren't bad, but aren't perfect. They are widely sold in the US- so, no import hassles. Bargain prices, too. Just beware 2 things: seriously risky fingerings that can cause an RSI with heavy practice; and occasional, but big, errors. These 1930s classics need revision by a better editor and/or copyist.

classic sonatas, book not too thick to use with page holder/lyre. This is a standard member of any piano music library.

Satisfactory in every way.
